

JORUNE AND A HALF THE CRYSTAL TARRO

GROUND FLOOR

SECOND LEVEL

Cygra Drenn Haswa Charul was lucky enough to have his tauthership end with a successfully investigation to recover challisks stolen from the Carisy family in Borlim, North Khodre. The thieves had been members of the Drawkis Order, a secret society of human-only fanatics originally founded in Thantier.

With the reward money from the Carisy job, Charul made the journey to Burdoth to complete his quest for drennship at the Hall of Drenn in Ardoth. He purchased the old Black Talmaron at the intersection of the Manser Strip and the Cryall Road.

The inclep reopened quietly in Erisa 3494 under the sign of the Crystal Tarro, a token of good luck from an old cygra children's story. Charul had carried a small sculpted tarro for good luck in his days as a merchant in Jasp before he pledged tauther in Kirlan.

For a 30 yules you can get a room kept safe by the four on-staff corastin guards. One meal from the tarro's kitchen is included with your room, served in either Burdoth or Temauntro style.

No Thantierian's allowed. Crugar and cygra are invited – and pampered.

A
U
S
S
1
9
9
4